Re: Doe v Jones, C.D.C. Orleans Parish, La., No. 123-4567

Dear John,

This is a sample of a letter, prepared to test Readdle's Scanner Pro app, which is now at version 4.2. If this were an actual letter, this is the part of the letter in which I would say something interesting that is protected by the attorney-client privilege.

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.

Here's To The Crazy Ones. The misfits. The rebels. The trouble-makers. The round pegs in the square holes. The ones who see things differently. They're not fond of rules, and they have no respect for the status-quo. You can quote them, disagree with them, glorify, or vilify them. About the only thing you can't do is ignore them. Because they change things. They push the human race forward. And while some may see them as the crazy ones, we see genius. Because the people who are crazy enough to think they can change the world are the ones who do.

With kindest regards, I remain,

Very truly yours,

JEFFREY E. RICHARDSON
